PROJECTS

Evaluation of biological attributes of Plectranthus Amboinicus essential oil Nano encapsulate.

The aqueous extracts and essential oils of P. amboinicus have promising pharmacognosy. The examined bio-attributes are:

- Extraction of Essential oil from Plectranthus amboinicus by hydrodistillation(PAEO) and its characterization.
- Nano encapsulation of obtained essential oil using Tween 80 and glycerol as emulsifier.
- Characterization of nanoemulsion and determination of its stability.
- Biological evaluation of obtained nano form of essential oil.
